DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 11-21 and 33 remain withdrawn from consideration.
2. Claims 1-10 and 22-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stewart et al., US 7,051,072.

Stewart discloses a supply chain management system comprising trading partners, a central hub location, e.g. 132, 154, and a unique identifier, e.g. claims 3, 11, encrypted messages, and modifying the message content that is processed at the central hub and delivering the content to the trading recipients, e.g. Fig. 6. Stewart does not explicitly indicate querying the central hub. However, the commerce system of Stewart allows for participation of the trading partners in the trading process. Nonetheless, querying a central hub responsive to an event has been common knowledge in the data processing art. To have provided such querying for Stewart would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as such data transfer has been common knowledge in the art.

Applicant's December 12, 2007 REMARKS have been reviewed, but are not convincing.

It is noted that Applicant's attempt at traversing the Official Notice findings as stated in the June 22, 2007 non-final Office Action is inadequate. Adequate traversal is a two step process. First, Applicant must state their traversal on the record. Second, and in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.111(b) which requires Applicant to specifically point out the supposed errors in the Office Action, Applicant must state why the Office Action statements are not to be considered common knowledge or well known in the art.

In this application, Applicant has met step (1) as traversal of Official Notice has been taken with regards to the 6/22/07 Office Action. Second, Applicant has failed step (2) since they have failed to argue why the Official Notice statements are not to be considered common knowledge or well known in the art. Because Applicant's traversal is inadequate, the Official Notice, e.g. common knowledge, statements are taken to be admitted as prior art. See, MPEP § 2144.03.

As is, the rejection noted above stands as the REMARKS are not convincing.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
